important
food group.”

- Lonnie

How the whole thing started....

In the magical realm of Auradon, things are about to take a strange and shocking turn!

Ben, son of King Beast and Queen Belle, is the future king of Auradon. As his first royal proclamation, he decides to invite the Villain Kids from the Isle of the Lost to attend Auradon Prep.

He chooses just four Villain Kids to begin with – the ones who most need help. They are the children of Cruella De Vil, the Evil Queen, Jafar ... and the worst villain in the land, Maleficent!

King Beast and Queen Belle are horrified by the idea of bringing the children of their sworn enemies to live in Auradon. But Ben believes the Villain Kids shouldn't be punished for their parents' mistakes.

"Don't you think they deserve a shot at a normal life?"

- Ben

The news doesn't go down well on the other side of the water, either! At first Mal, Evie, Jay and Carlos – the Villain Kids – refuse to leave the Isle, but Maleficent says they must go. She has a special task for them: find the Fairy Godmother's Magic Wand and bring it back to the Isle of the Lost.

The Wand has powers that Maleficent and her evil friends need in order to escape from the Isle of the Lost and take revenge on those who've wronged them. It's all about world domination! If Mal and her friends refuse to help, they'll be grounded for eternity.

*"With that Wand and my Sceptre ... I will be able to bend both good and evil to my will!"*

- Maleficent

When they arrive at Auradon Prep, the Villain Kids can't believe how 'nice' everything is. It's SO gross! They are determined to find the Wand and get back home as soon as possible.

As part of her plan to steal the Wand, Mal gives the Fairy Godmother's daughter, Jane, a glamorous new hairstyle.

Word spreads and soon lots of girls want Mal and Evie to give them makeovers, Isle style, using their unique sewing, hair and make-up skills!

"Now do my nose!"

- Jane

Jay and Carlos join the school's Tourney team, the Fighting Knights. Even though they've never played before, the boys eventually help the team to victory in an important match against their rivals, the Falcons!

Against all odds, unlikely friendships are formed between the pupils of Auradon Prep and the Villain Kids.

Before

After

When Mal discovers she will have an opportunity to snatch the Wand from the Fairy Godmother at Ben's coronation, she decides to use a love spell on him. But did she really need a spell, or had he already fallen for her?

On the day of the coronation, will Mal be able to go ahead with her evil plan? She is torn between her mother and her desire to have a happy ending of her own....

"This happily ever after thing isn't as lame as it sounds."

- Mal

Welcome to the USA!

When King Beast married Belle more than twenty years ago, he united all the kingdoms and the United States of Auradon was formed.

The USA is a beautiful land bordered by the blue Sea of Ariel. It is formed of many realms, from Faraway in the north down to Auroria in the south. There are also several islands off the mainland, including History Island, Skull Island, Never Land and ... the Isle of the Lost.

*Try to be good,
for goodness' sake.*

The forbidden island

The Isle of the Lost is a prison island, separated from the mainland by an invisible magical barrier. The villains and their side-kicks made the island their home after being banished from Auradon by King Beast.

The Villain Kids like to hang out on the market streets, stealing things and spraying graffiti. Their favourite shops are Ursula's Fish and Chips, and Hook's Clock and Curiosity Shop.

Long live
Evil
