THE FOX AND THE GHOST KING

TELL A FRIEND

'On moonlit nights we still often get together. We usually meet on the football pitch, after a match, because it's quiet, no one about. That's how foxes and ghosts like it. It's only when all of us are together again that I can really believe it happened, that we really did make not just one but two impossible dreams come true.'

(page 15 -16)

After reading the story, imagine the conversation the foxes have as they think about every thing that happened.

Write their conversation here.

Think about:

How things have changed for them now

How they feel about what happened

What they will do in the future
