| 54 | | Last week we went to the coast for a short break. My uncle has a new motorcar so he was keen to take the four of us on its maiden voyage! However, with only two doors and a tiny boat, there was no room for all our luggage. Since the weather was looking good, it seemed fair to leave behind some luxuries such as umbrellas and rain coats! Oh boy! If only we'd heard the forecast that morning! By the time we were half way there, it was bucketing down and didn't stop for the whole weekend. Fortunately, I had lots to read and my ever-helpful stationery box so I could write the first draft of this story. |

| 71 | | Colethatch Cottage Lane End Peterborough 25 January Dear Councillor Smithson We have started a organic vegetable garden at our school with a special worm farm which helps us make compost. We realised it would be beneficial after watching a programme on healthy eating, especially the importance of fresh food. The whole community is volunteering just an hour each week in exchange for surplus produce. It turns out that fresh broccoli and salad is delicious as well as nutritious. It was a bit disastrous at first because slugs and snails wouldn't stop nibbling our cabbage and lettuce. We learnt that slugs and snails are gastropods (which means stomach foot). We took a vote and decided not to kill them as they can be useful in the right place. We take turns patrolling the garden and scooping them up to relocate them to the compost heap. They're brilliant there. We would like to invite you to our special event to cut the giant green ribbon declaring our garden officially open. Yours sincerely Tarryn Marx Class 5 Hazlewood Primary |

"That's not allowed!" A voice quavered out of the darkness, murmuring, "Who's there?" Mr Lawrence marked Jonas's maths exam. He passed. "Don't let the dogs out!" shouted the janitor. "They bite!" |
