

Eid Mubarak Calligraphy

عيد مبارك

عيد مبارك

عيد مبارك

The traditional greeting on both Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Adha is “Eid Mubarak” which means “Blessed Festival”. This is Arabic, and many people say this to each other even if they don’t speak Arabic.

Use the next page to practice writing Eid Mubarak in calligraphy some more!

REMEMBER

When writing in Arabic, you start from the right-hand side.

عيد مبارك

عيد مبارك

عيد مبارك

عيد مبارك